Welcome! We're glad you want to be a part of the most prestigious writing conference and nonprofit promoter of literacy in the United States. The San Francisco Writers Conference enjoys a rich literary culture. From the traditional publishing world to the latest technology that empowers authors to publish anywhere, the SFWC brings it all together in a fabulous setting with the best possible presenters each year.

Sponsors help the 501c3 nonprofit SFWC to maintain its high level of excellence. At the same time, our sponsors not only enjoy a high-profile presence at the conference itself but you'll be visible in materials and media surrounding the conference all year round. Plus we manage the Writing for Change conference, the only one of its kind in the world, to enlighten activists on how they can change the world through writing. And we support literacy and writing with donations and support throughout the United States.

Join us at one of these standard levels or let us see what we can do to fit your budget. We look forward to working with you!
