

Donations

General Donations to the San Francisco Writers Conference Non-Profit Activities:

From time to time people ask how they can support the ongoing non-profit work of the San Francisco Writers Conference. We are pleased that our new online service makes accepting donations easier than ever before. To support our work with a monetary donation, please click here. COMING SOON! In the meantime, contact Barbara Santos (925) 420-6223 or barbara@sfwriters.org for details or CLICK HERE.

Support or Create a Scholarship to the SFWC

You can help talented writers in specific genres, students exploring writing as a career choice, or disadvantaged writers attend the San Francisco Writers Conference. How?

#1. You can be the benefactor of a scholarship in YOUR NAME for just $1,000. Name the scholarship for yourself, a loved one or as a memorial. Make a difference for a young, disadvantaged or minority writer. Receive recognition from the stage when scholarship sponsors and winners are recognized at the SFWC event. Please contact Barbara Santos (925) 420-6223 or barbara@sfwriters.org for details on creating a named scholarship.

#2. Donate any amount to the general SFWC Scholarship Fund. Consider contributing any amount to the fund by check or even a credit card. As little as $1 will help. (It all adds up and it may be a nice tax deduction for you!)

If you would like to support our scholarship fund immediately with a monetary donation, please click HERE.

We thank you for supporting the SFWC.

The San Francisco Writers Conference is a 501(c)3 Nonprofit Organization.