MECHANICS INSTITUTE LIBRARY is our valued partner for our year-round SFWC-MIL Classes. They will also be an exhibitor so you can learn more about them.

MIL is a leading cultural center that includes a vibrant library, a world-renowned chess program and a full calendar of engaging cultural events.

Founded in 1854 to serve the educational and social needs of mechanics — artisans, craftsmen, and inventors — and their families, the Institute today is a favorite of avid readers, writers, downtown employees, chess players, and the 21st century nomadic worker. We are located in our 9-story landmark building in the Financial District of San Francisco at 57 Post Street. Meet MIL's Strategic Partnerships Director Taryn Edwards on Friday and Saturday at their exhibit table.

National Writers Union—represents writers of all genres and media. It is part of the UAW, AFL-CIO... and has a Spanish language division, too. www.NWU.org PublishDrive—Everyone has a story; our mission is to help you tell yours. We believe that publishing beautiful books globally should be simple, straightforward, and accessible to everyone. Our team makes it possible. Our global team gives writers access to 400+ stores and 240,000 digital libraries, including major stores such as Amazon, Apple

Books, Google, Barnes & Noble, and local distributors. Our no-upfront-cost model makes self-publishing accessible. We are an Apple Approved Aggregator and trusted partner of Google.
